PRESS RELEASE

WILSON-HURD'S ISO 9001:2000 CERTIFICATION RENEWED THROUGH 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (1/30/09):

Wilson-Hurd recently announced that the Quality Management System of its Metal & Plastic and POP Display divisions has been certified as compliant with the International Standard ISO 9001:2000. This certification is valid through February 7, 2012.

This achievement is a direct result of the entire organization working together to effectively maintain the Quality Management System that is in place. "The recent renewal of our ISO certification is evidence of the high commitment to quality that we have," stated Paul Swanborg, the company's Quality Manager. Wilson-Hurd has been ISO certified since its original certification date of January 5, 2000.

Wilson-Hurd's headquarters are in Wausau, Wisconsin with a manufacturing plant located in Berlin, Wisconsin. The company's Metal & Plastic product division produces custom metal nameplates, panels, dials, plastic overlays and labels. Their POP Display division focuses on manufacturing a variety of components used on POP displays, including risers, logo plates, base plates, and trim.
